Kahiko Series

Soprano

Kahiko is the traditional form of the Hawai'ian Hula dance.

Our designers had a vision to recreate and develop an instrument similar to a traditional Hawai'ian ukulele with excellent sound qualities. And, so inspired by the age-old Kahiko celebration, the Mahalo Kahiko Series Ukulele was created. Available in four distinctive, transparent colors Mahalo Kahiko Series Ukuleles represent the best value for money.

SITKA SPRUCE
TOP

The perfect balance of great sound, stunning looks and effortless playability.

Our master luthiers are committed to producing finely handcrafted instruments with an artistic edge, and the PEARL SERIES is the result of this commitment.

We are proud to introduce this series to players around the world seeking professional-grade instruments with a unique look and sound. Our Sitka spruce tops provide precise clarity and incredible dynamic response while mahogany bodies add sustain and warmth to the tone.

A smooth mahogany neck with amara ebony fingerboard offers amazing response and smooth playability across the entire surface of the neck. A genuine amara ebony bridge and Graph Tech NuBone XB saddle add to the resonance and durability of this magnificent instrument.

To match these premium specifications, PEARL SERIES instruments feature skilfully crafted pearloid veneers and wood inlays all around the headstock, neck, body and bridge to add a uniquely sophisticated touch.

MASTER SERIES - ALL SOLID WOOD

The all-solid Master Series represents Mahalo's commitment to bringing out the finest in materials, craftsmanship, playability and tone. Meticulously hand-made by master craftsmen, these are top-tier instruments made from premium solid woods with incredible attention to detail.

Serious players will appreciate the solid red cedar top, solid mahogany body and the amara ebony fingerboard and bridge. With a natural matt finish and the subtle use of exquisite wood bindings and abalone inlays, the deep grained colors of these gorgeous woods are allowed to shine through — a visual delight for both you and your audience.

The use of real bone nuts and saddles, a one piece mahogany neck and our unique ToneFlow bracing produces a gorgeous instrument with amazing resonance and durability. The incredible detailing of the Master Series, from the multi-layer wood binding to the ivoroid button tuners, makes this a ukulele you'll cherish for a lifetime.

INTRODUCING KALIMBA

The Kalimba has a rich musical history stretching back some 3,000 years to the Shona people of Zimbabwe, Southern Africa. A close relation to the ancient Mbira, the Kalimba has been an important part of African music and culture for thousands of years. Today, the bell-like tone of the Kalimba with its even harmonics and rich warm tone blends well with modern music. Its compact size makes it an ideal travel instrument. Made from highly decorative trembesi wood and available in 9 different graphic art finishes, the Mahalo Kalimba is sure to become a crowd favorite.
